Opening Hymn:

Samuel's Song

*I am sleeping warm protected, something whispers in my mind;
And sighing through the blackness speaks my name upon the wind.
It's a time of seldom dreaming when the grown-ups' hearts are cold
And the future we are promised has grown tired and very old.*

*Who would make this quiet murmur? I am startled wide awake;
must be Eli old and fragile, and I hasten for his sake.
It's a time of seldom dreaming when the grown-ups cannot hear;
But the children keep the magic, listen still with open ears.*

*But old Eli tells me 'Samuel, it was not my voice you heard
Like an echo through the blackness, but the whisper of our Lord'
It's a time of seldom dreaming when the grown-ups cannot see;
But I am young so I remember how the world was pleased to be.*

*I return to wait in silence for the holy three-in-one;
Then I heard God's voice explaining Eli's sons have done much wrong,
And the young must tell the old ones, God will give us language strong
To tell how farms are laid with concrete and the whales have lost their song.*

*It is the work of our young vision to show the oil that coats the sea;
And the soil blown from the prairies and the rain that kills the trees.
If the grown-ups join our dreaming God will grant us another start;
We can begin to fix creation when they 'waken from the dark.*

*When the grown-ups know God's message
We'll clean the plastic from the sea;
We will scrub the air and water, heal the soil, replant the trees.
Then we all can do our dreaming, Eli taught us how to hear
When the voice of God comes calling soft and warning in our ear.*

*Yes we all can do our dreaming; children know the way to hear
When the voice of God comes calling, strong and loving in our ear.*

Collect of the Day

Almighty God, your Son our Saviour Jesus Christ is the light of the world. May your people, illumined by your word and sacraments, shine with the radiance of his glory, that he may be known, worshipped, and obeyed to the ends of the earth; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Amen

First Reading: 1 SAMUEL 3:1-20

A READING FROM THE FIRST BOOK OF SAMUEL

Now the boy Samuel was ministering to the Lord under Eli. The word of the Lord was rare in those days; visions were not widespread. At that time Eli, whose eyesight had begun to grow dim so that he could not see, was lying down in his room; the lamp of God had not yet gone out, and Samuel was lying down in the temple of the Lord, where the ark of God was. Then the Lord called, "Samuel! Samuel!" and he said, "Here I am!" and ran to Eli, and said, "Here I am, for you called me." But he said, "I did not call; lie down again." So he went and lay down. The Lord called again, "Samuel!" Samuel got up and went to Eli, and said, "Here I am, for you called me." But he said, "I did not call, my son; lie down again." Now Samuel did not yet know the Lord, and the word of the Lord had not yet been revealed to him. The Lord called Samuel again, a third time. And he got up and went to Eli, and said, "Here I am, for you called me." Then Eli perceived that the Lord was calling the boy. Therefore Eli said to Samuel, "Go, lie down; and if he calls you, you shall say, 'Speak, Lord, for your servant is listening.'" So Samuel went and lay down in his place. Now the Lord came and stood there, calling as before, "Samuel! Samuel!" And Samuel said, "Speak, for your servant is listening." Then the Lord said to Samuel, "See, I am about to do something in Israel that will make both ears of anyone who hears of it tingle. On that day I will fulfil against Eli all that I have spoken concerning his house, from beginning to end. For I have told him that I am about to punish his house forever, for the iniquity that he knew, because his sons were blaspheming God, and he did not restrain them. Therefore I swear to the house of Eli that the iniquity of Eli's house shall not be expiated by sacrifice or offering forever.” Samuel lay there until morning; then he opened the doors of the house of the Lord. Samuel was afraid to tell the vision to Eli. But Eli called Samuel and said, “Samuel, my son.” He said, “Here I am.” Eli said, “What was it that he told you? Do not hide it from me. May God do so to you and more also, if you hide anything from me of all that he told you.” So Samuel told him everything and hid nothing from him. Then he said, “It is the Lord; let him do what seems good to him.” As Samuel grew up, the Lord was with him and let none of his words fall to the ground. And all Israel from Dan to Beersheba knew that Samuel was a trustworthy prophet of the Lord.

Psalm 139:1-5, 12-17

1. Lord, you have searched me out and known me; you know my sitting down and my rising up; you discern my thoughts from afar.
2. You trace my journeys and my resting-places and are acquainted with all my ways.
3. Indeed, there is not a word on my lips, but you, O Lord, know it altogether.
4. You press upon me behind and before and lay your hand upon me.
5. Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; it is so high that I cannot attain to it.
12. For you yourself created my inmost parts; you knit me together in my mother’s womb.
13. I will thank you because I am marvellously made; your works are wonderful, and I know it well.
14. My body was not hidden from you, while I was being made in secret and woven in the depths of the earth.

15. Your eyes beheld my limbs, yet unfinished in the womb; all of them were written in your book; they were fashioned day by day, when as yet there was none of them.
16. How deep I find your thoughts, O God! how great is the sum of them!
17. If I were to count them, they would be more in number than the sand; to count them all, my life span would need to be like yours.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost.

All: As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be; world without end. Amen

Second Reading: 1 CORINTHIANS 6:12-20 (Brian Bawn)

A READING FROM THE FIRST LETTER OF PAUL TO THE CORINTHIANS

“All things are lawful for me,” but not all things are beneficial. “All things are lawful for me,” but I will not be dominated by anything. “Food is meant for the stomach and the stomach for food,” and God will destroy both one and the other. The body is meant not for fornication but for the Lord, and the Lord for the body. And God raised the Lord and will also raise us by his power. Do you not know that your bodies are members of Christ? Should I therefore take the members of Christ and make them members of a prostitute? Never! Do you not know that whoever is united to a prostitute becomes one body with her? For it is said, “The two shall be one flesh.” But anyone united to the Lord becomes one spirit with him. Shun fornication! Every sin that a person commits is outside the body; but the fornicator sins against the body itself. Or do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you, which you have from God, and that you are not your own? For you were bought with a price; therefore glorify God in your body.

Gospel: John 1:35-42

Priest: The Lord be with you. All: and also with you.

Priest: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ is taken from the 1st Chapter of John beginning at the 35th verse.

All: Glory to You, Lord Jesus Christ.

The next day John again was standing with two of his disciples, and as he watched Jesus walk by, he exclaimed, "Look, here is the Lamb of God!" The two disciples heard him say this, and they followed Jesus. When Jesus turned and saw them following, he said to them, "What are you looking for?" They said to him, "Rabbi" (which translated means Teacher), "where are you staying?" He said to them, "Come and see." They came and saw where he was staying, and they remained with him that day. It was about four o'clock in the afternoon. One of the two who heard John speak and followed him was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother. He first found his brother Simon and said to him, "We have found the Messiah" (which is translated Anointed). He brought Simon to Jesus, who looked at him and said, "You are Simon son of John. You are to be called Cephas" (which is translated Peter).

Priest: The Gospel of Christ.

All: Praise to You, Lord Jesus Christ.
