Collect of the Day:

Lord of life and power, through the mighty resurrection of your Son, you have overcome the old order of sin and death and have made all things new in him. May we, being dead to sin and alive to you in Jesus Christ, reign with him in glory, who with you and the Holy Spirit is alive, one God, now and forever. Amen.

First Reading: Isaiah 25: 6-9

On this mountain the Lord of hosts will make for all peoples a feast of rich food, a feast of well-aged wines, of rich food filled with marrow, of well-aged wines strained clear. And he will destroy on this mountain the shroud that is cast over all peoples, the sheet that is spread over all nations; he will swallow up death forever. Then the Lord God will wipe away the tears from all faces, and the disgrace of his people he will take away from all the earth, for the Lord has spoken. It will be said on that day, Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, so that he might save us. This is the Lord for whom we have waited; let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation.

Reader: The Word of the Lord. All: Thanks Be to God.

Psalm: 118: 14-24

p. 483

14. The Lord is my strength and my song, and is become my salvation.

15. The voice of joy and health is in the dwellings of the righteous: the right hand of the Lord bringeth mighty things to pass.

16. The right hand of the Lord is exalted: the right hand of the Lord bringeth mighty things to pass.

17. I shall not die, but live, and declare the works of the Lord.

18. The Lord hath chastened and corrected me; but he hath not given me over unto death.

19. Open to me the gates of righteousness, that I may go into them and give thanks unto the Lord.

20. This is the gate of the Lord: the righteous shall enter into it.

21. I will thank thee, for thou hast heard me, and art become my salvation.

22. The same stone which the builders refused is become the head-stone in the corner.

23. This is the Lord's doing, and it is marvelous in our eyes.

24. This is the day which the Lord hath made; we will rejoice and be glad in it

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost

All: As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be; world without end. Amen

Second Reading: Acts 10: 34-43

Then Peter began to speak to the Gentiles: "I truly understand that God shows no partiality, but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him. You know the message he sent to the people of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ – he is Lord of all. That message spread throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John announced: how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power; how he went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. We are witnesses to all that he did both in Judea and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree; but God raised him on the third day and allowed him to appear, not to all the people but to us who were chosen by God as witnesses, and who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one ordained by God as judge of the living and the dead. All the prophets testify about him that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name.”

Reader: The Word of the Lord. All: Thanks Be to God.

Gospel: JOHN 20: 1-18

Priest: The Lord be with you. All: and also with you.

Priest: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ is taken from the 20th Chapter of John beginning at the 1st verse. All: Glory to You, Lord Jesus Christ.

Early on the first day of the week, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene came to the tomb and saw that the stone had been removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one whom Jesus loved, and said to them, “They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid him.” Then Peter and the other disciple set out and went toward the tomb. The two were running together, but the other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first. He bent down to look in and saw the linen wrappings lying there, but he did not go in. Then Simon Peter came, following him, and went into the tomb. He saw the linen wrappings lying there, and the cloth that had been on Jesus’ head, not lying with the linen wrappings but rolled up in a place by itself. Then the other disciple, who reached the tomb first, also went in, and he saw and believed; for as yet they did not understand the scripture, that he must rise from the dead. Then the disciples returned to their homes. But Mary stood weeping outside the tomb. As she wept, she bent over to look into the tomb; and she saw two angels in white, sitting where the body of Jesus had been lying, one at the head and the other at the feet. They said to her, “Woman, why are you weeping?” She said to them, “They have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid him.” When she had said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing there, but she did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping? Whom are you looking for?" Supposing him to be the gardener, she said to him, "Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have laid him, and I will take him away." Jesus said to her, "Mary!" She turned and said to him in Hebrew, "Rabbouni!" (which means Teacher). Jesus said to her, "Do not hold on to me, because I have not yet ascended to the Father. But go to my brothers and say to them, 'I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my god and your God.'" Mary Magdalene went and announced to the disciples, "I have seen the Lord"; and she told them that he had said these things to her.

Recessional Hymn: "Our God Reigns"

*How lovely on the mountains are the feet of him who brings good news,
good news; announcing peace,
proclaiming news of happiness:
our God reigns, our God reigns!*

Refrain

Our God reigns, our God reigns,
our God reigns, our God reigns!

*He had no stately form,
he had no majesty that we should be drawn to him.
He was despised
and we took no account of him, yet now he reigns with the Most High! Refrain

*It was our sin and guilt that bruised and wounded him;
it was our sin that brought him down.
When we like sheep had gone astray,
our shepherd came and on his shoulders bore our shame!
Refrain*

*Meek as a lamb that's led out to the slaughterhouse, still as a sheep before its shearer,
his life ran down upon the ground like pouring rain that we might be born again! Refrain

*Out of the tomb he came with grace and majesty;
he is alive, he is alive!
God loves us so:
see here his hands, his feet, his side;
yes, we know he is alive! Refrain
