Collect of the Day

Almighty God, whose chosen servant Abraham obeyed your call, rejoicing in your promise that in him the family of the earth is blessed, give us faith like his, that in us your promises may be fulfilled; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

First Reading: Ruth 1: 1-18

A READING FROM THE BOOK OF RUTH

In the days when the judges ruled, there was a famine in the land, and a certain man of Bethlehem in Judah went to live in the country of Moab, he and his wife and two sons. The name of the man was Elimelech and the name of his wife Naomi, and the names of his two sons were Mahlon and Chilion; they were Ephrathites from Bethlehem in Judah. They went into the country of Moab and remained there. But Elimelech, the husband of Naomi, died, and she was left with her two sons. These took Moabite wives; the name of the one was Orpah and the name of the other Ruth. When they had lived there about ten years, both Mahlon and Chilion also died, so that the woman was left without her two sons and her husband. Then she started to return with her daughters-in-law from the country of Moab, for she had heard in the country of Moab that the Lord had considered his people and given them food. So she set out from the place where she had been living, she and her two daughters-in-law, and they went on their way to go back to the land of Judah. But Naomi said to her two daughters-in-law, “Go back each of you to your mother’s house. May the Lord deal kindly with you, as you have dealt with the dead and with me. The Lord grant that you may find security, each of you in the house of your husband.” Then she kissed them, and they wept aloud. They said to her, “No, we will return with you to your people.” But Naomi said, “Turn back, my daughters, why will you go with me? Do I still have sons in my womb that they may become your husbands? Turn back, my daughters, go your way, for I am too old to have a husband. Even if I thought there was hope for me, even if I should have a husband tonight and bear sons, would you then wait until they were grown? Would you then refrain from marrying? No, my daughters, it has been far more bitter for me than for you, because the hand of the Lord has turned against me.” Then they wept aloud again. Orpah kissed her mother-in-law, but Ruth clung to her. So she said, “See, your sister-in-law has gone back to her people and to her gods; return after your sister-in-law.” But Ruth said, “Do not press me to leave you or to turn back from following you! Where you go, I will go; Where you lodge, I will lodge; your people shall be my people, and your God my God. Where you die, I will die – there will I be buried. May the Lord do thus and so to me, and more as well, if even death parts me from you!” When Naomi saw that she was determined to go with her, she said no more to her.

All: Thanks be to God

Psalm: 146

p. 517

1. Praise the Lord, O my soul; while I live will I praise the Lord: yea, as long as I have any being, I will sing praises unto my God.
2. O put not your trust in princes nor in any child of man; for there is no help in them.
3. For when the breath of man goeth forth, he shall turn again to his earth: and then all his thoughts perish.
4. Blessed is he that hath the God of Jacob for his help, and whose hope is in the Lord his God;

5. Who made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that therein is; who keepeth his promise for ever;
6. Who helpeth them to right that suffer wrong; who feedeth the hungry.
7. The Lord looseth men out of prison: the Lord giveth sight to the blind.
8. The Lord raiseth up them that are fallen: the Lord loveth the righteous.
9. The Lord careth for the strangers; he upholdeth the fatherless and widow: as for the way of the ungodly, he turneth it upside down.
10. The Lord thy God, O Sion, shall be King for evermore, and throughout all generations.

Glory be to the Father and the Son and the Holy Ghost
All: As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be; world without end. Amen

Second Reading: Hebrews 9: 11-14 (Aidan Vincent)

A READING FROM THE LETTER TO THE HEBREWS

But when Christ came as a high priest of the good things that have come, then through the greater and perfect tent (not made with hands, that is, not of this creation), he entered once for all into the Holy Place, not with the blood of goats and calves, but with his own blood, thus obtaining eternal redemption. For if the blood of goats and bulls, with the sprinkling of the ashes of a heifer, sanctifies those who have been defiled so that their flesh is purified, how much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without blemish to God, purify our conscience from dead works to worship the living God!

Gospel: Mark 12: 28-34

Priest: The Holy Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ is taken from the 12th Chapter of Mark beginning at the 28th verse.

All: Glory be to Thee, O Lord

One of the scribes came near and heard them disputing with one another, and seeing that Jesus answered them well, he asked him, "Which commandment is the first of all?" Jesus answered, "The first is, 'Hear, O Israel: the Lord our God, the Lord is one; you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength.' The second is this, 'You shall love your neighbour as yourself.' There is no other commandment greater than these." Then the scribe said to him, "You are right, Teacher; you have truly said that 'he is one, and besides him there is no other'; and 'to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the strength,' and 'to love one's neighbour as oneself,' – this is much more important than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices." When Jesus saw that he answered wisely, he said to him, "You are not far from the kingdom of God." After that no one dared to ask him any question.

All: Praise be to Thee, O Christ

Hymn: "There's A Quiet Understanding" (SFGP #66)

*There's a quiet understanding when we're gathered in the Spirit,
It's a promise Jesus gives us when we gather in his name;
There's a love we feel in Jesus, there's a manna that he feeds us,
It's a promise Jesus gives us when we gather in his name.*

*And we know when we're together, sharing love and understanding,
That our brothers and our sisters feel the oneness Jesus brings
Thank you, Jesus, thank you Jesus, for the way you love and feed us,
For the many ways you lead us; thank you, gracious Lord.
Thank you gracious Lord.*

Hymn: "The Fruit of the Spirit" (Fresh Sounds #53)

Chorus:

*For the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace,
Patience, kindness, goodness,
Faithfulness, gentleness, self-control;
For such there is no law.*

*Have you seen my Lord on the cross so high?
Do you know his name? Do you hear his cry?
'Father, here's my love. Father, take my love,
As the tree bears fruit for you'. (Chorus)*

*Have you seen his face and the look he gave
To the dying man he alone would save?
'Sinner, here's my love. Sinner, take my love,
As the tree bears fruit for you'. (Chorus)*

*Can we answer him? Can the heart reply?
How to follow him as we live and die!
'Jesus, here's our love. Jesus, take our love,
As the tree bears fruit for you'. (Chorus)*

Sermon – The Rev. Paul Ranson

Offertory Hymn: "Open My Eyes That I May See" (SFGP #82)

*Open my eyes that I may see
Glimpses of truth thou hast for me;
Place in my hands the wonderful key
That shall unclasp and set me free.*

Chorus:

*Silently now I wait for thee, ready, my God, thy will to see;
Open my eyes, illumine me, Spirit divine!*

*Open my ears that I may hear
Voices of truth thou sendest clear,
And while the wave-notes fall on my ear,
Ev'rything false will disappear. (Chorus)*

*Open my mouth and let me bear
Gladly the warm truth ev'rywhere;
Open my heart and let me prepare
Love with thy children thus to share. (Chorus)*
